

Kelsey Museum of the University of Michigan
Museum of Art and Archaeology of the University of Missouri-Columbia
JRA Supplementary Series no. 10.1

TEL ANAFA I, i-ii

Final report on ten years of excavation at a Hellenistic and Roman settlement in Northern Israel

Sharon C. Herbert

with contributions by

D. T. Ariel, W. Farrand, G. Finkielsztein, Y. Meshorer, R. Redding, A. Stein

The full account of the occupational history and stratigraphy of the site, located in Upper Galilee, from the Bronze age to the Arabic period, with particular concentration on the Late Hellenistic. There are also chapters on the stamped amphora handles (D. Ariel and G. Finkielsztein), coins (Y. Meshorer), a seal (A. Stein), the geological setting (W. Farrand) and the vertebrate fauna (R. Redding).

Fascicule i (text)

1	S. C. Herbert, Introduction
1	Significance of Tel Anafa
2	Location and Regional History
9	History of the Excavations
12	Summary of Remains
23	Excavation and Recording System
25	Archives and Storage
26	S. C. Herbert, Occupational history and stratigraphy
27	Introduction
31	Key to the Footnotes and Abbreviations
31	Late Hellenistic Remains: The Late Hellenistic Stuccoed Building
83	Late Hellenistic Remains: The South Annex
95	Late Hellenistic Remains: The West Annex
100	Late Hellenistic Remains: Houses on the South Slope
109	Roman Era Occupation: Overview
110	Roman Remains in the Area of the Late Hellenistic Stuccoed Building
139	Roman Remains on the South Slope
144	Arabic Remains
148	Bronze Age Remains
156	Iron Age - Early Hellenistic Remains
169	Bibliography for Chapters 1 and 2
183	D. T. Ariel and G. Finkielsztein, Stamped amphora handles
241	Y. Meshorer, Coins
261	A. Stein, A Tyrian sealing

265 W. Farrand, The geological setting
279 R. Redding, Vertebrate fauna

Fascicule ii (containing figures and plates)

1-35 BALKS 1-51

36-79 APPENDIX: Locus Summary

80-238 PLATES 1-153

List price for the set: $129.00, Discounted price to private individuals $103.20 plus postage.

ISBN: 1-887829-10-5.

Fascicule I, i contains 335 pages, 47 line drawings, 47 photographs

Fascicule I, ii contains 238 pages, 35 line drawings, and 319 photographs, and 1 large folding plan

Cloth, 8 1/2 x 11 inches. Printed on acid free paper.