

JRA Supplementary Series no. 52

A CYPRIOT VILLAGE OF LATE ANTIQUITY

Kalavastos-Kopetra in the Vasilikos valley

by Marcus Rautmann

based on fieldwork organized with Murray C. McClellan with contributions by L. Benson, S. C. Fox, M. D. Glascock, B. Gomez, M. C. McClellan, H. Neff,

W. O'Brien and D. S. Reese

7. List of figures and tables

9. Exploring Kopetra

Introduction

Conventions used in this report

Acknowledgements

15. A place in the country

An island landscape

Memory and settlement

Previous archaeological survey in Cyprus

Survey objectives and methods at Kopetra

Artifacts

Distribution and analysis

Verification

Conclusions

45. The fabric of settlement

Materials and methods

Area I: A monastery at Sirmata

Area II: The south church

Area V: The north church

Areas IV and VI: Two residential buildings

The apse mosaics, by L. Benson and M. Rautman

Churches of the Cypriot chora

157. Coins

Introduction

Catalogue

162. Roman and Late Roman ceramics

Introduction

Catalogue

The pottery of a small place

217. Glass, by M. C. McClellan

Introduction

Catalogue

235. Kopetra in late antiquity

A village of the early 7th c.

The Vasilikos valley in late antiquity

The busy Cypriot countryside: a synthesis of recent work

Cyprus in the East Mediterranean

The 'Dark Ages' on a sunny island

Appendices

263 Fieldwork participants, by M. C. McClellan

264. Alluvial sedimentation and landscape stability, by B. Gomez

267. Compositional analysis of Cypriot ceramics, by M. Rautman, H. Neff, and M. D. Glascock

272. Marine and fresh-water shells, by D. S. Reese

274. Human skeletal remains: a preliminary report, by S. C. Fox

278. Present-day production of gypsum plaster in the Vasilikos valley, by M. C. McClellan

279. Concordance of inventoried objects

281. Bibliography

List price $99.50. Discounted price to individuals $79.60 plus postage.

Cloth, 296 pages, 38 halftones, 104 line drawings, 44 tables. ISBN 1-887829-52-0. Published April 2003.